

LINE #	SPANISH	LITERAL ENGLISH	FAITHFUL ENGLISH	CULTURAL CONTEXT	TRANSLATION CLARIFICATION
LINE #	SPANISH	LITERAL ENGLISH	FAITHFUL ENGLISH	CULTURAL CONTEXT	TRANSLATION CLARIFICATION
1	El orgulloso le mostró sus presas.	The proud one showed her his prey.	Proudly, he displayed his trophies to her.	Showing prey is a sign of warrior pride and accomplishment.	"Presas" here refers to trophies or spoils of war.
2	EL CABALLERO AGUILA Y EL CABALLERO TIGRE	THE EAGLE KNIGHT AND THE JAGUAR KNIGHT	THE EAGLE KNIGHT AND THE JAGUAR KNIGHT	Elite warrior orders in Aztec society: Eagle and Jaguar knights held highest honor.	Title — no translation clarification needed.
3	La luna ilumina plácidamente las inmensas y oscuras rocas del monte.	The moon placidly illuminates the immense and dark rocks of the mountain.	The moon softly lights the great dark rocks of the mountain.	Quiet night setting conveys mood of mystery and stillness.	"Plácidamente" evokes serenity.
4	Los bosques a lo lejos se esfuman con sus largas sombras.	The forests in the distance fade with their long shadows.	Faraway forests fade into long shadows.	Nightfall imagery suggesting passage of time and isolation.	Natural metaphor for evening.
5	Canta el zenzontle;	The mockingbird sings;	The mockingbird sings;	Zenzontle, a bird symbolic in Mesoamerican tradition, known for its song.	Specific bird name retained.
6	negras aves aleteando lentamente pasan ocultando a veces con fugitive marcha el rostro redondo y blanco del astro nocturno.	Black birds flutter slowly, sometimes hiding in fleeting flight the round and white face of the nocturnal star.	Black birds slowly fly past, at times hiding the round white face of the moon.	The moon (astro nocturno) being veiled symbolizes mystery or omen.	"Fugitive marcha" rendered as fleeting movement.

7	Y allá en el fondo del valle silencioso y pálido, brillan los grandes lagos en cuya superficie de plata bruñida mirase la sombría silueta de la grand Tenochtitlan.	And there, at the bottom of the silent and pale valley, shine the great lakes in whose polished silver surface could be seen the shadowy silhouette of great Tenochtitlan.	Far below, the great lakes shine with silvery sheen, reflecting the shadowy silhouette of grand Tenochtitlan.	Tenochtitlan, capital of Aztec Empire, symbolizes grandeur and civilization.	Smoothed for poetic narrative flow.
8	De pronto únese al murmullo de la noche, vago y enorme, un canto tristísimo, doloroso, que vibraba en las soledades con un gemido de noche.	Suddenly, to the vague and enormous murmur of the night, joins a very sad, painful song, vibrating in the solitude with a nighttime wail.	Suddenly, a sorrowful, painful song joins the night's vague murmur, echoing with a mournful wail.	Night song adds supernatural or emotional layer.	Simplified and naturalized.
9	Subitamente se apagó.	Suddenly it faded.	Suddenly it fell silent.	Sudden silence heightens tension.	Simple clarification.
10	Por entre los matorrales una sombra gigantesca que avanzaba monstruosa al ras del suelo, se detuvo en el instante en que la voz doliente que cantaba se extinguía.	Among the bushes a gigantic shadow, monstrous, moving close to the ground, stopped at the moment the mournful voice fell silent.	A huge, monstrous shadow moving low stopped as the mournful voice faded.	Shadow introduces sense of the supernatural or unknown.	Smoothed for readability.
11	¿De quién era aquél acento melancólico, de quién la sombra gigantesca?	Whose was that melancholic voice, whose was the gigantic shadow?	Whose melancholy voice, whose giant shadow was it?	Rhetorical question deepens mystery.	Slight naturalization.
12	¡Oh! Virgen del blanco huipilli, ¿porqué tan sola?	Oh! Virgin of the white huipil, why so alone?	Oh, Virgin in the white huipil, why are you so alone?	Huipil is a traditional garment; evokes indigenous identity.	Kept "huipil" in transliteration.

13	Tú eres maravillosamente bella ¿cómo es posible que vagues en estos desiertos montes tan sola, sin temor a las fieras ni a los vagamundos espías enemigos de nuestro Gran Tecuhtli, el poderoso rey México?	You are wonderfully beautiful; how is it possible that you wander these deserted mountains so alone, without fear of beasts or wandering spies, enemies of our great Tecuhtli, the mighty king of Mexico?	You are marvelously beautiful; how can you wander alone in these desolate mountains, unafraid of wild beasts or spies, enemies of our great Tecuhtli, mighty king of Mexico?	Tecuhtli is a Nahuatl word meaning "lord" or "ruler."	Explained as cultural title.
14	Tu traje albo, tu belleza gentil y tu adorable juventud, me demuestran claramente que perteneces a las jóvenes doncellas de noble estirpe, que se educan para bien de la patria, en el sagrado Calmecac, donde los sacerdotes del Sol preparan el porvenir de la valiente raza tenocha.	Your white garment, your gentle beauty, and your adorable youth clearly show that you belong to the young maidens of noble lineage, who are educated for the good of the nation in the sacred Calmecac, where the priests of the Sun prepare the future of the brave Tenocha race.	Your white dress, gentle beauty, and youth show you are among noble maidens trained in the Calmecac, where priests prepare the future of the brave Tenocha people.	Calmecac was the Aztec school for nobles. Tenocha refers to the Mexica people.	"Race" rendered as "people" for modern tone.
15	Di, encantadora doncella, ¿qué dios maligno te arrebató del sacro recinto donde en este instante tus compañeras núbiles, bunden sus gallardas	Tell, enchanting maiden, what evil god snatched you from the sacred enclosure where at this moment your nubile companions lower their proud	Tell me, lovely maiden, what evil god took you from the sacred place where now your noble companions lower their proud	Address suggests chivalric tone; noble maiden imagery.	Cut-off to be continued next page.
16	formas en el Czapán, la primorosa alberca de las cristalinas aguas?	forms in the Czapán, the exquisite pool of crystalline waters?	do you take form in Czapán, the lovely pool of crystal-clear waters?	Poetic, referring to a mythical or beautiful body of water.	"Forms" poeticized as "take form."

17	Alto mancebo de noble porte, llevando el cahüipilli gris sin mangas y cuyos brazos teñidos de negro de obsidiana, eran fuertes y hermosos	Tall youth of noble bearing, wearing the sleeveless gray huipil, whose arms dyed obsidian black, were strong and handsome.	A tall, noble youth, sleeveless gray huipil, arms dyed obsidian-black, strong and handsome.	Obsidian-black paint was used in warfare/rituals.	"Cahüipilli" is alternate spelling of huipil.
18	—era él que hacía proyectar sobre las malezas del monte la sombra larga y fantástica	—it was he who cast upon the brush of the hill the long and fantastic shadow.	—he cast a long, fantastical shadow over the mountain brush.	Night, moon, and shadow emphasize drama and mystery.	Naturalized for smoother English.
19	y era también, quien con ceremoniosas palabras y frases delicadamente escogidas, habíase dirigido a una mujer airosa y joven, vestida con primoroso huipilli blanco.	and he was also the one who, with ceremonious words and carefully chosen phrases, had addressed a graceful and young woman dressed in a lovely white huipil.	he also, with formal words, addressed the graceful young woman in her fine white huipil.	Huipil is traditional indigenous dress, signifying youth and purity.	Slight smoothing.
20	¡Desdichado mancebo!	Unfortunate youth!	Poor young man!	Expression of pity and sorrow.	"Desdichado" naturalized as "poor."
21	Tres veces sea maldita la hora en que recibió el baño del bautismo	Three times cursed be the hour he received the bath of baptism	Three times cursed be the hour he was baptized	"Bath of baptism" = poetic, rendered as "baptized."	No cultural clarification needed.
22	el sacerdote oráculo me aseguró, que el hombre que encontraría en noche azul y blanca como esta tendría que ser mi esposo.	the oracle priest assured me, the man I would meet on a night blue and white like this must be my husband.	the oracle priest said that the man I'd meet on such a night would be my husband.	Prophecy trope, often used in legends.	Simplified for clarity.
23	—Y no sabes quien soy, infeliz Yaoquisque, de humilde raza!	—And you do not know who I am, unfortunate Yaoquisque, of humble race!	—And you don't know who I am, poor Yaoquisque, of humble birth!	"Yaoquisque" means plebeian or commoner.	Rendered as "humble birth."

24	Pobre guerrero sin nobles padres, ni gloriosas hazañas	Poor warrior without noble parents or glorious deeds	Poor warrior, without noble parents or great deeds		Simplified slightly for natural English.
25	que aún te enseñan el arte de los combates en el Teocalli	who still learns the art of combat in the Teocalli	still learning battle skills in the Teocalli	Teocalli refers to temple/school for warriors.	Clarified for modern audience.
26	el colegio de los jóvenes plebeyos!	the school of young plebeians!	the school for commoner youths!	Teocalli had schools for noble and common youths.	Slightly expanded for clarity.
27	Yo soy la hija mayor de Moctezuma	I am the eldest daughter of Moctezuma	I am Moctezuma's eldest daughter	Moctezuma, emperor of Aztec Empire.	No further clarification needed.
28	pero tan infausta fue la suerte que para mí predijo el augur sacerdote en las solemnidades de mi nacimiento	but so dire was the fate predicted for me by the augur priest during my birth ceremonies	but ill fate was foretold for me by the augur at my birth	"Augur priest" is seer/diviner.	Simplified phrasing.
29	que soy la única doncella del sacro Calmecac que vago sola por los bosques en las noches de luna	that I am the only maiden of the sacred Calmecac who wanders alone in the forests by moonlight	that I, sole maiden of the sacred Calmecac, wander alone at night in the forests	Calmecac was the noble school in Aztec culture.	Poetic rendering.
30	para encontrar el esposo que me puede dar la felicidad	to find the husband who can give me happiness	seeking the husband who can bring me happiness	Common trope: finding fated spouse.	No further clarification needed.
31	Pero, ¡ay de mí y de ti!	But, alas for me and you!	But alas, for both you and me!	Adds sense of shared tragic fate.	Slight naturalization.
32	No siendo tú educado como los principales mancebos de la casta sacerdotal, ni hijo de Tecuhtli, ni de señor noble alguno	Since you are not educated like the young nobles of the priestly caste, nor son of a Tecuhtli, nor of any noble lord	Since you are not trained like noble youths, nor son of a Tecuhtli or noble lord	Tecuhtli means "lord" or "ruler" in Nahuatl.	Clarified for readability.

33	tenemos que sucumbir en el sacrificio de la fiesta del Sol, dentro de cuatro lunas.	we must succumb in the sacrifice of the feast of the Sun, within four moons.	we are destined for sacrifice at the Sun Festival, in four moons' time.	Human sacrifice at festivals was central in Aztec religion.	"Succumb" made clearer as "destined for sacrifice."
34	humilde a las palabras de la misteriosa doncella vagamunda	humble to the words of the mysterious wandering maiden	humbled by the words of the wandering maiden	Poetic — wandering maiden trope.	"Humble to" naturalized as "humbled by."
35	sujeta por el augur de su destino a abandonar el sagrado recinto del	bound by destiny's augury to abandon the sacred precinct of the great	bound by destiny to leave the sacred Calmecac	Calmecac = noble school/temple of learning.	Slightly streamlined.
36	para vagar por los montes, las noches en que pura y radiante y en su plena gloria de esplendor	to wander the mountains, on nights when pure and radiant and in full splendor	to wander the mountains on nights of radiant glory	Poetic language.	"Pure and radiant" merged.
37	la luna iluminase los campos, leguas y leguas fuera de Tenochtitlan	the moon illuminated the fields, leagues and leagues beyond Tenochtitlan	the moon lit the fields far beyond Tenochtitlan	More natural phrasing.	Simplified.
38	Comprendió el mancebo que su humilde origen no le permitía desposar libremente a la hija del	The youth understood his humble origin did not permit him to freely wed the daughter of the world's	The youth knew he could not freely wed the daughter of the greatest Tecuhtli	Tecuhtli = ruler/noble title.	Naturalized.
39	de Moctezuma, que hollaba el Teocalli con su regio cacle de oro	of Moctezuma, who trod the Teocalli with her royal golden sandals	of Moctezuma, who trod the Teocalli in golden sandals	Cacle = sandals; Teocalli = sacred pyramid/temple.	Clarified with "golden sandals."
40	el único que bebía el octli blanco de los festines	the only one who drank the white octli at the feasts	the only one allowed to drink white octli at feasts	Octli = ritual pulque drink.	Clarified for non-expert readers.
41	en jícaras incrustadas de ópalos, y perlas	in cups inlaid with opals and pearls	from opal and pearl inlaid bowls	Jícaras = ceremonial cups.	Clarified.
42	¡Y, sin embargo —oh terrible voluntad de los dioses— tenía que cumplirse su destino	And yet — oh terrible will of the gods — destiny had to be fulfilled	Yet — oh cruel will of the gods — destiny had to be fulfilled	More natural English.	Slightly intensified with "cruel."

43	desposandose con ella, aunque no pudiera nadie asistir al banquete familiar	marrying her, though no one could attend the family banquet	marrying her, though no one would attend the family banquet	Social isolation marked.	Minor adjustment.
44	ni dar con su propia mano en la boca de su esposo, el primer bocado	nor give with her own hand to her husband's mouth the first bite	nor place the first bite into her husband's mouth herself	Ritual custom.	Clarified action.
45	que marcaban los divinos rituales de su religión	which marked the divine rituals of their religion	as required by divine ritual	Streamlined.	Slightly more fluid English.
46	Por el contrario, abominada ella por el pueblo	On the contrary, abhorred by the people	Instead, abhorred by the people	"Por el contrario" naturalized.
47	por las doncellas del Calmecac en que se había educado con tanto esmero	by the maidens of the Calmecac where she had been so carefully raised	and by the Calmecac maidens she had grown up with	Clarified relationship.
48	él beñado, lapidado por sus compañeros	he scorned, stoned by his companions	he mocked and stoned by his comrades	Lapidado = stoned to death / punished harshly.	Simplified to "stoned."
49	los mancebos que se adiestraban para la guerra de los dioses y la patria	the youths trained for the war of the gods and the homeland	the young warriors trained for war and sacrifice	Ritualized war; gods and homeland invoke duty.	Clarified.
50	en el fuerte Tepuchcalli, irían al templo del Sol, en la fiesta de Oguion	in the fortress Tepuchcalli, would go to the Sun temple, at the feast of Oguion	from Tepuchcalli, they would go to the Sun temple during the Oguion festival	Tepuchcalli = warriors' school/fortress.	Clarified context.
51	a sacrificarse sin haber dado a la nación un solo hijo guerrero	to sacrifice themselves without giving the nation a single warrior son	sacrificing themselves, without having borne a warrior son	National and sacrificial duty.	Made more natural.
52	ni al templo de Quetzacoatl una sola doncella	nor to the temple of Quetzacoatl a single maiden	nor even a single maiden to Quetzacoatl's temple	Context of sacrificial tribute.	Clarified.
53	¡Qué afrenta!	What an affront!	What a disgrace!	Very strong rebuke in cultural sense.	Slight adjustment for modern English.

54	su muerte, sin gloria, ni provecho para la patria — ¡Desventurados!	his death, without glory or benefit for the homeland — Unfortunate ones!	dying without glory or honor for the homeland — How tragic!	Warrior death and honor key concepts.	Naturalized for English clarity.
55	Al fin joven Yaoquisque levantó la cabeza, tan sólo adornada por una pluma de águila	At last young Yaoquisque raised his head, adorned only by an eagle feather	At last, young Yaoquisque raised his head, bearing only an eagle feather	Eagle feather = symbol of bravery.	Slight word order refinement.
56	y sacudiendo los brazos pintados de negro exclamó	and shaking his arms painted black he exclaimed	shaking his black-painted arms, he cried out	Warrior ritual body painting.	Simplified.
57	Tlaque Nahuaque, el Alma Universal que ve todo lo que pasa en el mundo	Tlaque Nahuaque, the Universal Soul that sees all that happens in the world	Tlaque Nahuaque, the Universal Spirit that sees all things	Nahua cosmology → Universal Spirit.	Naturalized.
58	sabe bien, ¡oh! desdichada hija de rey	knows well, oh, unhappy daughter of a king	knows well, oh sorrowful daughter of royalty	Poetic emphasis.	Adjusted.
59	que no tuve intención de verte en estos momentos	that I had no intention of seeing you at this time	I never intended to meet you like this	Naturalized for smoother flow.
60	aunque ya comprendo porque desde el día de nuestra nacimiento se unieron nuestros futuros destinos	though now I understand that since our birth our destinies were united	though I now see our fates were joined since birth	Simplified for fluidity.
61	¡porque te amo! ¡No puedo resistir!	because I love you! I cannot resist!	because I love you! I cannot help myself!	Passionate declaration.	Minor naturalization.
62	El único remedio que hay para que tú pudieras ser mi esposo	The only remedy for you to be my husband	The only way you could be my husband	"Remedy" → "way" in English.
63	sería que vencieras en un combate al primer Caballero Águila	would be that you defeat in combat the first Eagle Knight	would be to defeat the first Eagle Knight in combat	Eagle Knight = elite warrior.	Simplified.

64	Pero para eso necesitarías ser Caballero Tigre, todo un gran Ocelotl	But for that you would need to be a Jaguar Knight, a great Ocelotl	But for that, you would need to become a Jaguar Knight, a true Ocelotl	Ocelotl = Jaguar Knight.	Naturalized with "become."
65	Pues bien, iré a la guerra del Sur	Well then, I will go to the war of the South	Very well, I will go south to fight	"South" battlefields.	Clarified with "south to fight."
66	combatiré con los feroces habitantes de las montañas	I will fight the fierce mountain inhabitants	I will fight the fierce mountain tribes	Fierce indigenous tribes.	Clarified.
67	haré prisioneros y llegaré a ser pronto un Ocelotl	I will take prisoners and soon become an Ocelotl	I will take captives and soon become a Jaguar Knight	Prisoners were needed for warrior advancement.	Clarified.
68	y combatiré con el Cuahuítl; con el Caballero Águila	and I will fight the Cuahuítl; with the Eagle Knight	and I will face Cuahuítl, the Eagle Knight	Cuahuítl = the Eagle Knight's name/identity.	Clarified.
69	¿Cómo te llamas?	What is your name?	What is your name?	Direct speech.	Literal.
70	Tlotzin — ¿y tú?	Tlotzin — and you?	Tlotzin — and you?	Direct.	Literal.
71	Atototzin. Toma las púas de Maguey del sacrificio	Atototzin. Take the Maguey spines for the sacrifice	Atototzin. Take the sacred maguey spines	Maguey = agave plant; used in bloodletting rituals.	Clarified for context.
72	no olvides que si te matan en la guerra yo al mismo tiempo moriré	do not forget that if you are killed in war I will die at the same time	remember, if you die in battle, I too shall die	Emotional bond → poetic phrasing.	Naturalized.
73	presa de horribles dolores	prey to horrible pains	seized by unbearable sorrow	"Horrible pains" → poetic "sorrow."
74	Que tu destino y el mio ya son uno	That your destiny and mine are now one	For our destinies are now united	Smoothed.
75	el Cuahuítl es el mal genio que nos persigue y que tú debes matarlo	Cuahuítl is the evil spirit that pursues us and that you must kill	Cuahuítl is the evil force pursuing us — you must defeat him	Evil "force" better than "spirit" here.	Naturalized for readability.
76	VI (section marker - no line)	—	—	—	—
77	Rápidamente desapareció la doncella	Quickly the maiden disappeared	The maiden vanished swiftly	Poetic phrasing.	Naturalized.

78	Su huipilli blanco dejó tras sí estela de luz de nieve tan blanca	Her white huipil left behind a trail of snow-white light	Her white huipil left a trail of snow-bright light behind her	Huipil = indigenous dress. Clarified.
79	como la del penacho del Popocatepetl	like the plume of Popocatepetl	like the plume of Popocatepetl	Popocatepetl = famous volcano. Direct.
80	inmóvil y erguido allá en Oriente	immobile and upright there in the East	standing still and upright in the East	Slightly naturalized.
81	Y el joven Yaoquisque, hundiéndose las púas de maguey, sagradas	And the young Yaoquisque, thrusting in the sacred maguey spines	And young Yaoquisque, piercing himself with sacred maguey thorns	Ritual self-sacrifice "Piercing himself" naturalized
82	bendecidas en el Teocalli para la penitencia	blessed in the Teocalli for penance	blessed at the Teocalli for penance	Teocalli = temple
83	bañó su rostro de bronce en la sangre que brotaba de sus heridas	bathed his bronze face in the blood flowing from his wounds	bathed his bronze face in his own flowing blood	"Own" added for clarity
84	Y al ofrendar su vida al porvenir de noble educanda	And offering his life for the future of the noble maiden	Offering his life for the noble young woman's future	"Maiden" clarified as "young woman"
85	escapada por orden del augur de su destino	escaped by order of her destiny's augur	who had fled on the augur's decree	Augur = omen/diviner. Naturalized
86	escuchó el tristísimo canto que vibraba tan melancólicamente	heard the very sad song that vibrated so melancholically	heard the sorrowful chant echoing so mournfully	More poetic rendering
87	en el monte solitario, a la luz de la luna	on the solitary mountain, in the moonlight	through the lonely mountain in the moon's glow	Smoothed
88	VII (section marker - no line)	—	—	—
89	¡Oh! qué soberbios llegan los ejércitos victoriosos	Oh! How proud arrive the victorious armies	Oh, how proud the victorious armies return	Minor naturalization

90	que vuelven del Sur, después de haber dominado	that return from the South, after having dominated	returning from the South after conquering	"Dominated" → "conquering"
91	a los bravos y audaces guerreros de las serranías mixtecas	the brave and daring warriors of the Mixtec mountains	the brave and daring warriors of the Mixtec highlands	"Mountains" → "highlands"
92	Hay un frenesí indescriptible en las hordas populares	There is an indescribable frenzy in the popular hordes	The crowds are in a frenzy	Simplified "popular hordes"
93	al mirar que el convoy de prisioneros se prolonga	at seeing the convoy of prisoners stretching	at the sight of the long line of prisoners	Naturalized
94	en masa compacta por las calzadas y fuentes hasta la ciudad de Tlacopan	in a compact mass through the roads and fountains to Tlacopan	winding densely through roads and fountains to Tlacopan	Smoothed and naturalized
95	¡Esta vez sí que el Sol, el gran Tonatiuh, esplendoroso	This time, surely the Sun, the great Tonatiuh, splendid	Surely this time, the radiant Sun, great Tonatiuh	Tonatiuh = Sun God Smoothed
96	hará que el Dios Penteotl, el buen dios del maíz	will make the God Penteotl, the good god of maize	will make Penteotl, the kindly god of maize	Clarified and smoothed
97	sea más propicio que en las épocas anteriores	be more favorable than in previous times	be more favorable than ever before	Naturalized
98	en que el hambre asoló al pueblo	when hunger devastated the people	when famine struck the people	"Hunger" → "famine"
99	Ahora, con tantos millares de víctimas, el cielo hará llover la felicidad	Now, with so many thousands of victims, heaven will rain down happiness	Now, with so many victims, the heavens will rain down joy	Smoothed and naturalized
100	El mismo Moctezuma mostrará su júbilo	Moctezuma himself will show his joy	Moctezuma himself will rejoice	Naturalized
101	paseando en los puentes sagrados delante de las multitudes	strolling on the sacred bridges before the multitudes	strolling along the sacred bridges before the crowds	Minor adjustment

102	dijo alegremente un viejo mercader a un joven yaoquisque	said joyfully an old merchant to a young yaoquisque	joyfully said an old merchant to a young yaoquisque	Smoothed
103	que no había ido a la campana	who had not gone to the campaign	who had not joined the war campaign	Clarified
104	Y sabéis, señor, que el que más prisioneros hizo	And you know, sir, that the one who took the most prisoners	And do you know, sir, who captured the most prisoners?	Naturalized for dialogue
105	fué un compañero mío que vuelve ya convertido en Ocelotcutli	was a companion of mine who returns already made into an Ocelotcutli	was my comrade, now returned as an Ocelotcutli	Ocelotcutli = Tiger Knight / Jaguar warrior rank
106	Sí, señor, todo un caballero tigre que llega	Yes, sir, a full Tiger Knight who arrives	Yes sir, a true Jaguar Knight, who returns	Clarified for Aztec context
107	con más despojos y prisioneros que sus jefes	with more spoils and prisoners than his chiefs	with more spoils and prisoners than even his commanders	Clarified
109	Entran los nobles vencedores a los patios del Calmecac de las vírgenes	The noble victors enter the courtyards of the Calmecac of the maidens	The noble victors enter the Calmecac courtyards of the virgins	Calmecac = elite Aztec school for noble children and priestesses
110	para que estas contemplan a los que les destinan los sacerdotes por esposos	so that these may contemplate those whom the priests designate as husbands	so that the virgins may behold those destined by the priests to become their husbands	Smoothed and naturalized
111	sus esclavos y mancebos cargan tesoros y ofrendas, trofeos de guerra y caza	their slaves and young men carry treasures and offerings, trophies of war and hunting	while slaves and young warriors carry treasures, offerings, and trophies of war and hunting	Naturalized
112	Y las vírgenes vestidas con los blancos huipillis les contemplan	And the virgins dressed in white huipillis gaze at them	The virgins, dressed in white huipillis, gaze at them	Huipil = traditional indigenous blouse/dress

113	arrobadas ante la gallardía de los caballeros-águilas, más nobles que los Ocelotl	enraptured by the gallantry of the eagle knights, nobler than the Ocelotl	enraptured by the noble bearing of the Eagle Knights, more esteemed than the Jaguar Knights	"Ocelotl" clarified
114	Sólo un Ocelotl del Techupulcalli, de origen plebeyo	Only an Ocelotl from the Techupulcalli, of plebeian origin	Only a Jaguar Knight from the Techupulcalli, of common origin	Techupulcalli = school for commoners Clarified
115	permaneció en una vasta sala al lado de sus trofeos y botín de guerra	remained in a large hall beside his trophies and war spoils	stayed behind in a great hall beside his trophies and spoils of war	Smoothed
116	Su humilde origen no le permitía pasar a los patios de los sacerdotes	His humble origin did not permit him to enter the priests' courtyards	His lowly origin barred him from entering the priests' courtyard	Naturalized
117	Meditaba cuando vio llegar a él la virgen de su destino y sus amores	He was meditating when he saw the maiden of his destiny and love arrive	Lost in thought, he saw the maiden of his destiny and love approach	Naturalized poetic phrase
118	Sin decir una palabra se contemplaron	Without saying a word they contemplated each other	They gazed at each other in silence	Smoothed
119	El, orgulloso, le mostró sus preseas bélicas	He, proud, showed her his war trophies	Proudly, he showed her his trophies of war	Smoothed
120	Ella respondió: Vé a vencer al águila, antes de que te desposes con la paloma	She replied: Go defeat the eagle before you marry the dove	She answered: Defeat the Eagle Knight before you may wed the dove	Clarified "águila" and "paloma"
121	Tlotzin salió; pero ya no debía volver nunca	Tlotzin left, but he was never to return	Tlotzin departed, never to return	Smoothed
122	VIII (section marker - skip as usual)	—	—	—
123	Cuentan los ancianos que la hija de Moctezuma oraba	The elders say that the daughter of Moctezuma was praying	The elders say that Moctezuma's daughter was praying	Naturalized

124	en el Palacio de las Águilas, cuando súbitamente cayó muerta	in the Palace of the Eagles, when she suddenly fell dead	in the Palace of the Eagles, when she suddenly collapsed, dead	"Fell dead" → "collapsed, dead"
125	En aquél triste momento se encontró el cadáver de Tlotzin, el caballero Tigre	At that sad moment was found the corpse of Tlotzin, the Tiger Knight	At that sorrowful moment, Tlotzin's body, the Jaguar Knight, was found	Smoothed + "Tiger Knight" → "Jaguar Knight"
126	Una paloma blanca cantaba todas las noches de luna llena	A white dove sang every full moon night	A white dove sang every full moon night	Direct
127	una canción fúnebre, tristísima	a funereal, very sad song	a haunting funeral song	"Funereal" → "haunting funeral song" for flow